

The Legend

JANUARY 1949

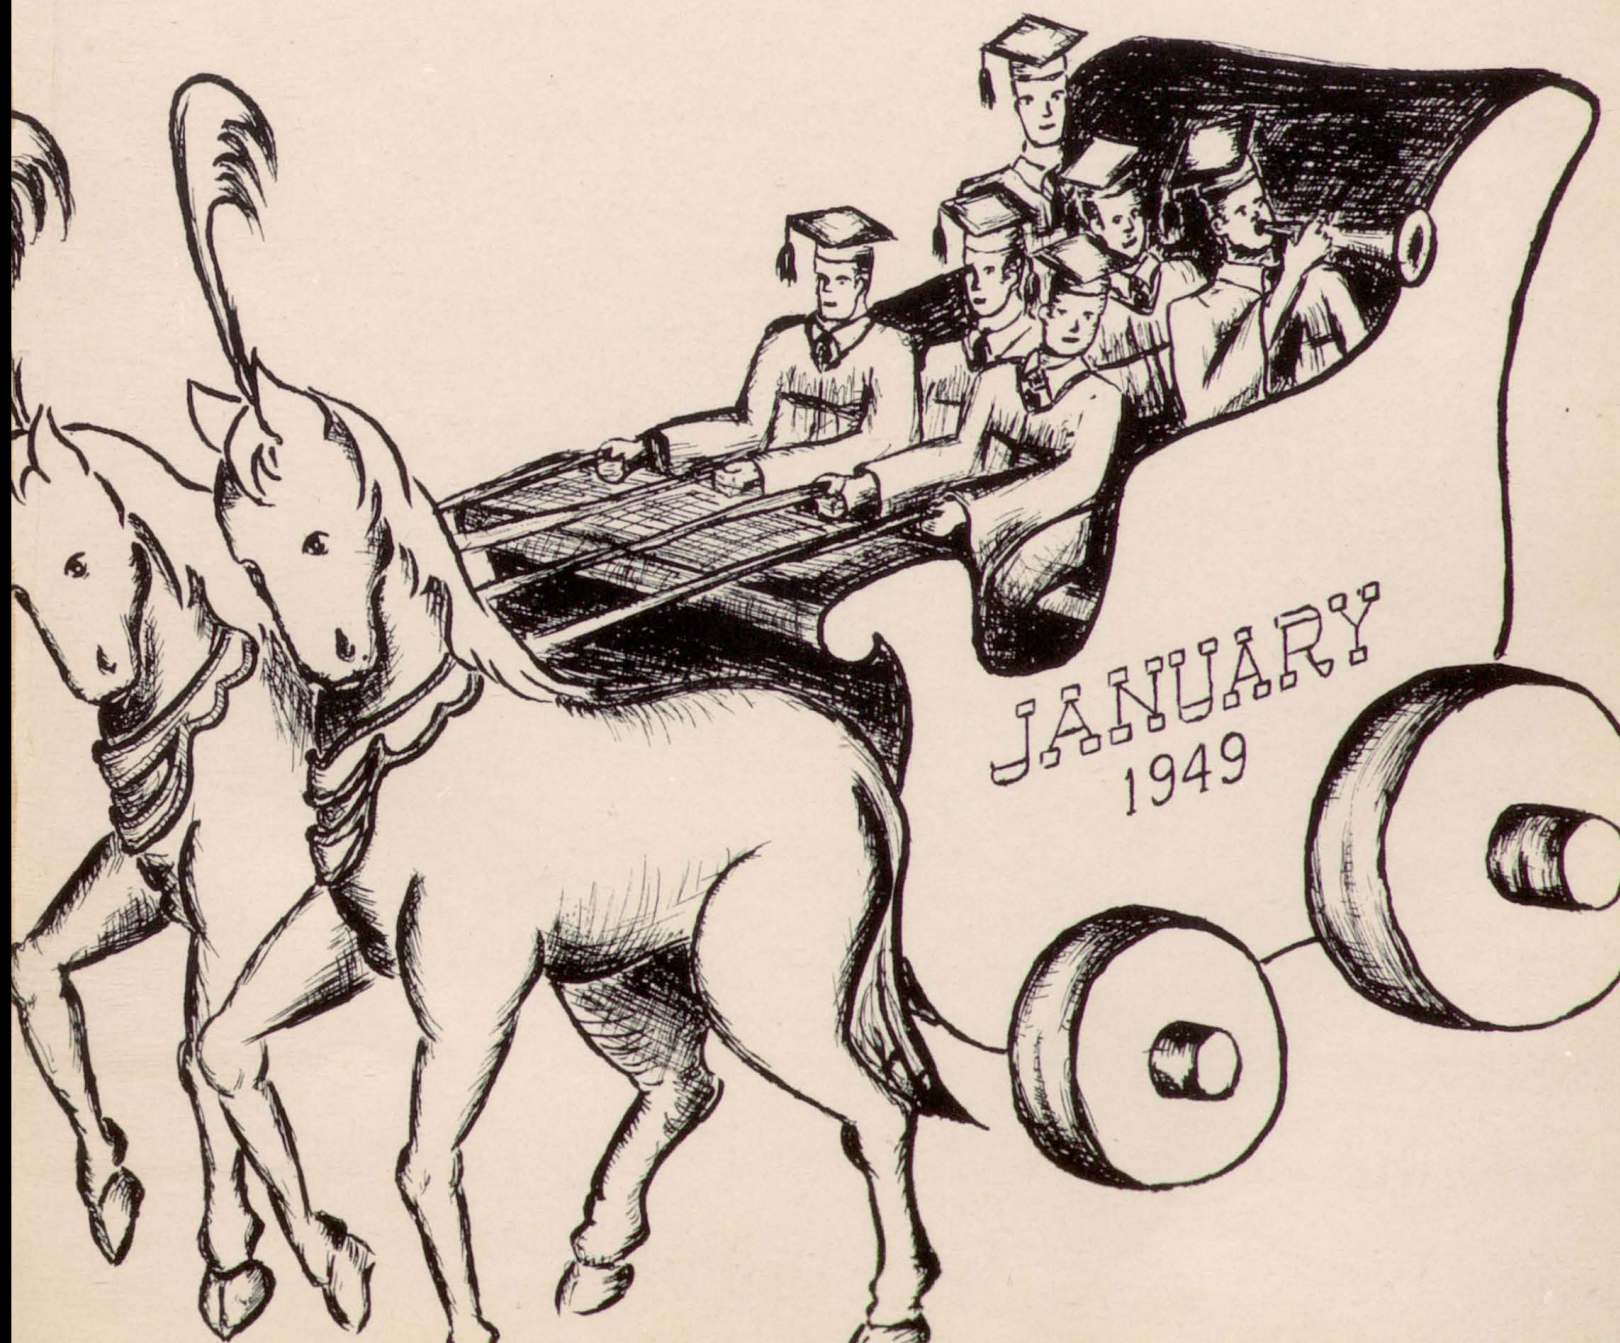

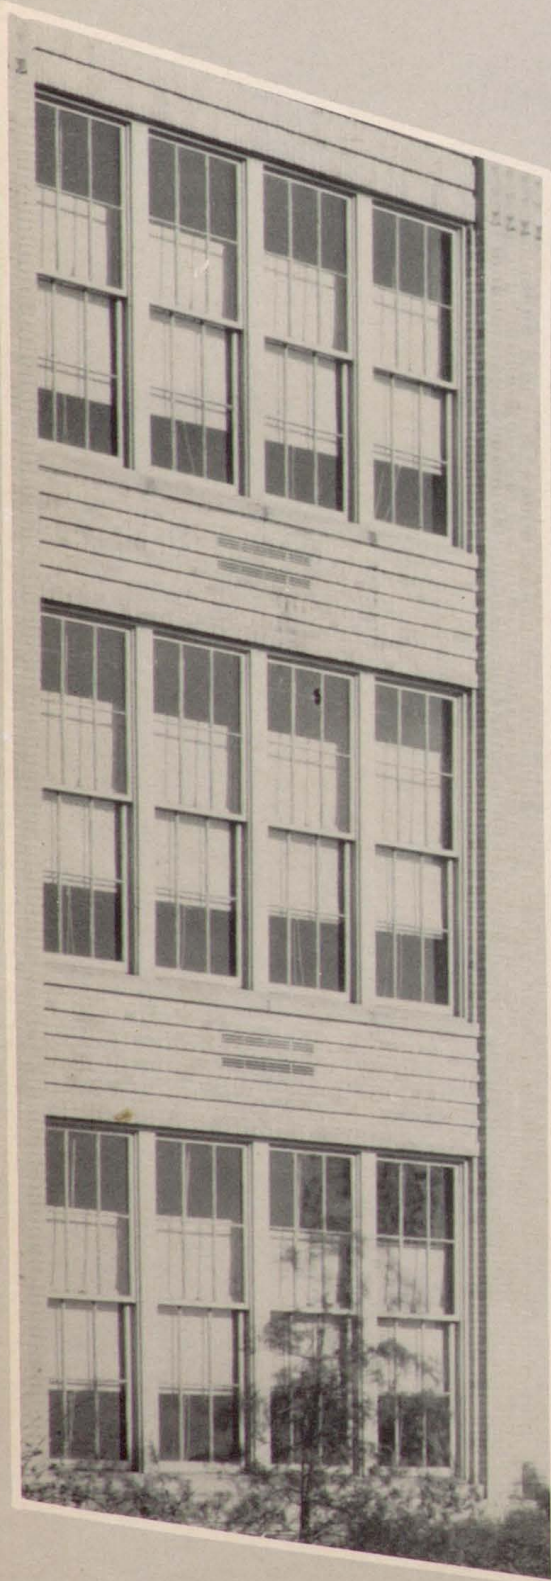

THE LEGEND

WEEQUAHIC HIGH SCHOOL
NEWARK, N.J.

Foreword

Our show at last has had its close.
The spotlight's dimmed;
The spangles packed away;
But every tired troupier knows
That this is not the end.

The stars that shone in our small tent
These four long years,
Our season's run,
Will grace a larger firmament,
For this is not the end.

We joined the troupes, were shown the ropes,
Told how and when
And what to do;
And now our hearts are filled with hopes
That this is not the end.

This book's a record of our past
Accomplishments,
Of hopes and dreams and plans,
Unfinished history of our class,
For this is not the end.

Who knows what paths each one shall take,
What detours come
On life's side-streets?
The rugged road its toll will take;
But this is not the end.

We take our places now among
The greater show
Of life adult;
And each of us will sing this song:
"The best is yet to come."

LUCY PRINZ

*D*edication

Virginia M. Beard

It is with deep affection and gratitude that the Class of January 1949 dedicates its Legend to Miss Virginia Beard. This is but a token of our appreciation for her most helpful guidance which she so unsparingly bestowed upon us as our class adviser and lasting friend.

Principal

To the Members of the Class of January 1949:

Epictetus, an old Greek philosopher, once said: "Only the educated are free." Knowledge not only makes you free, however; it has many other uses. It protects you against error and wrong ideas; it enables you to move forward in our dangerous world with greater confidence; it teaches you how to discover yourself and to get along with yourself; it provides you with occupations for your leisure; it gives you the opportunity to make friends and to store up memories. I hope that these memories will in general be pleasant ones. We have sincerely tried to make your stay here at Weequahic a happy one and to do all we possibly could for you. I extend to you my very best wishes for a fortunate future.

In Memoriam

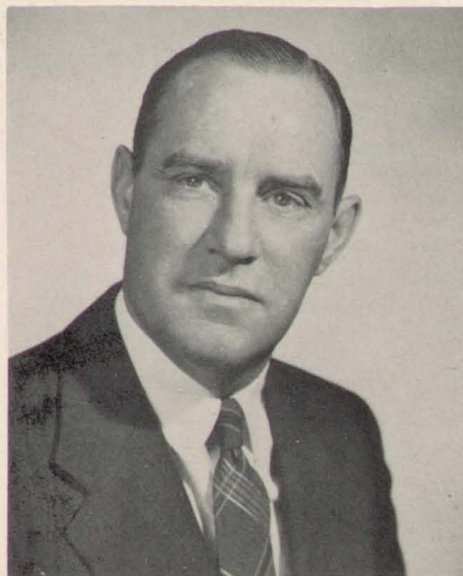

Eva Vogel

IT IS with deep regret that the graduating class of January 1949 mourns the passing of one of our faculty, Miss Eva Vogel. We mingle with our regret a deep sense of pride in having known Miss Vogel. She was our inspiring companion, teacher, and friend, and her passing is a great loss to Weequahic High School.

"Hail, Weequahic!"

Our Alma Mater- Weequahic

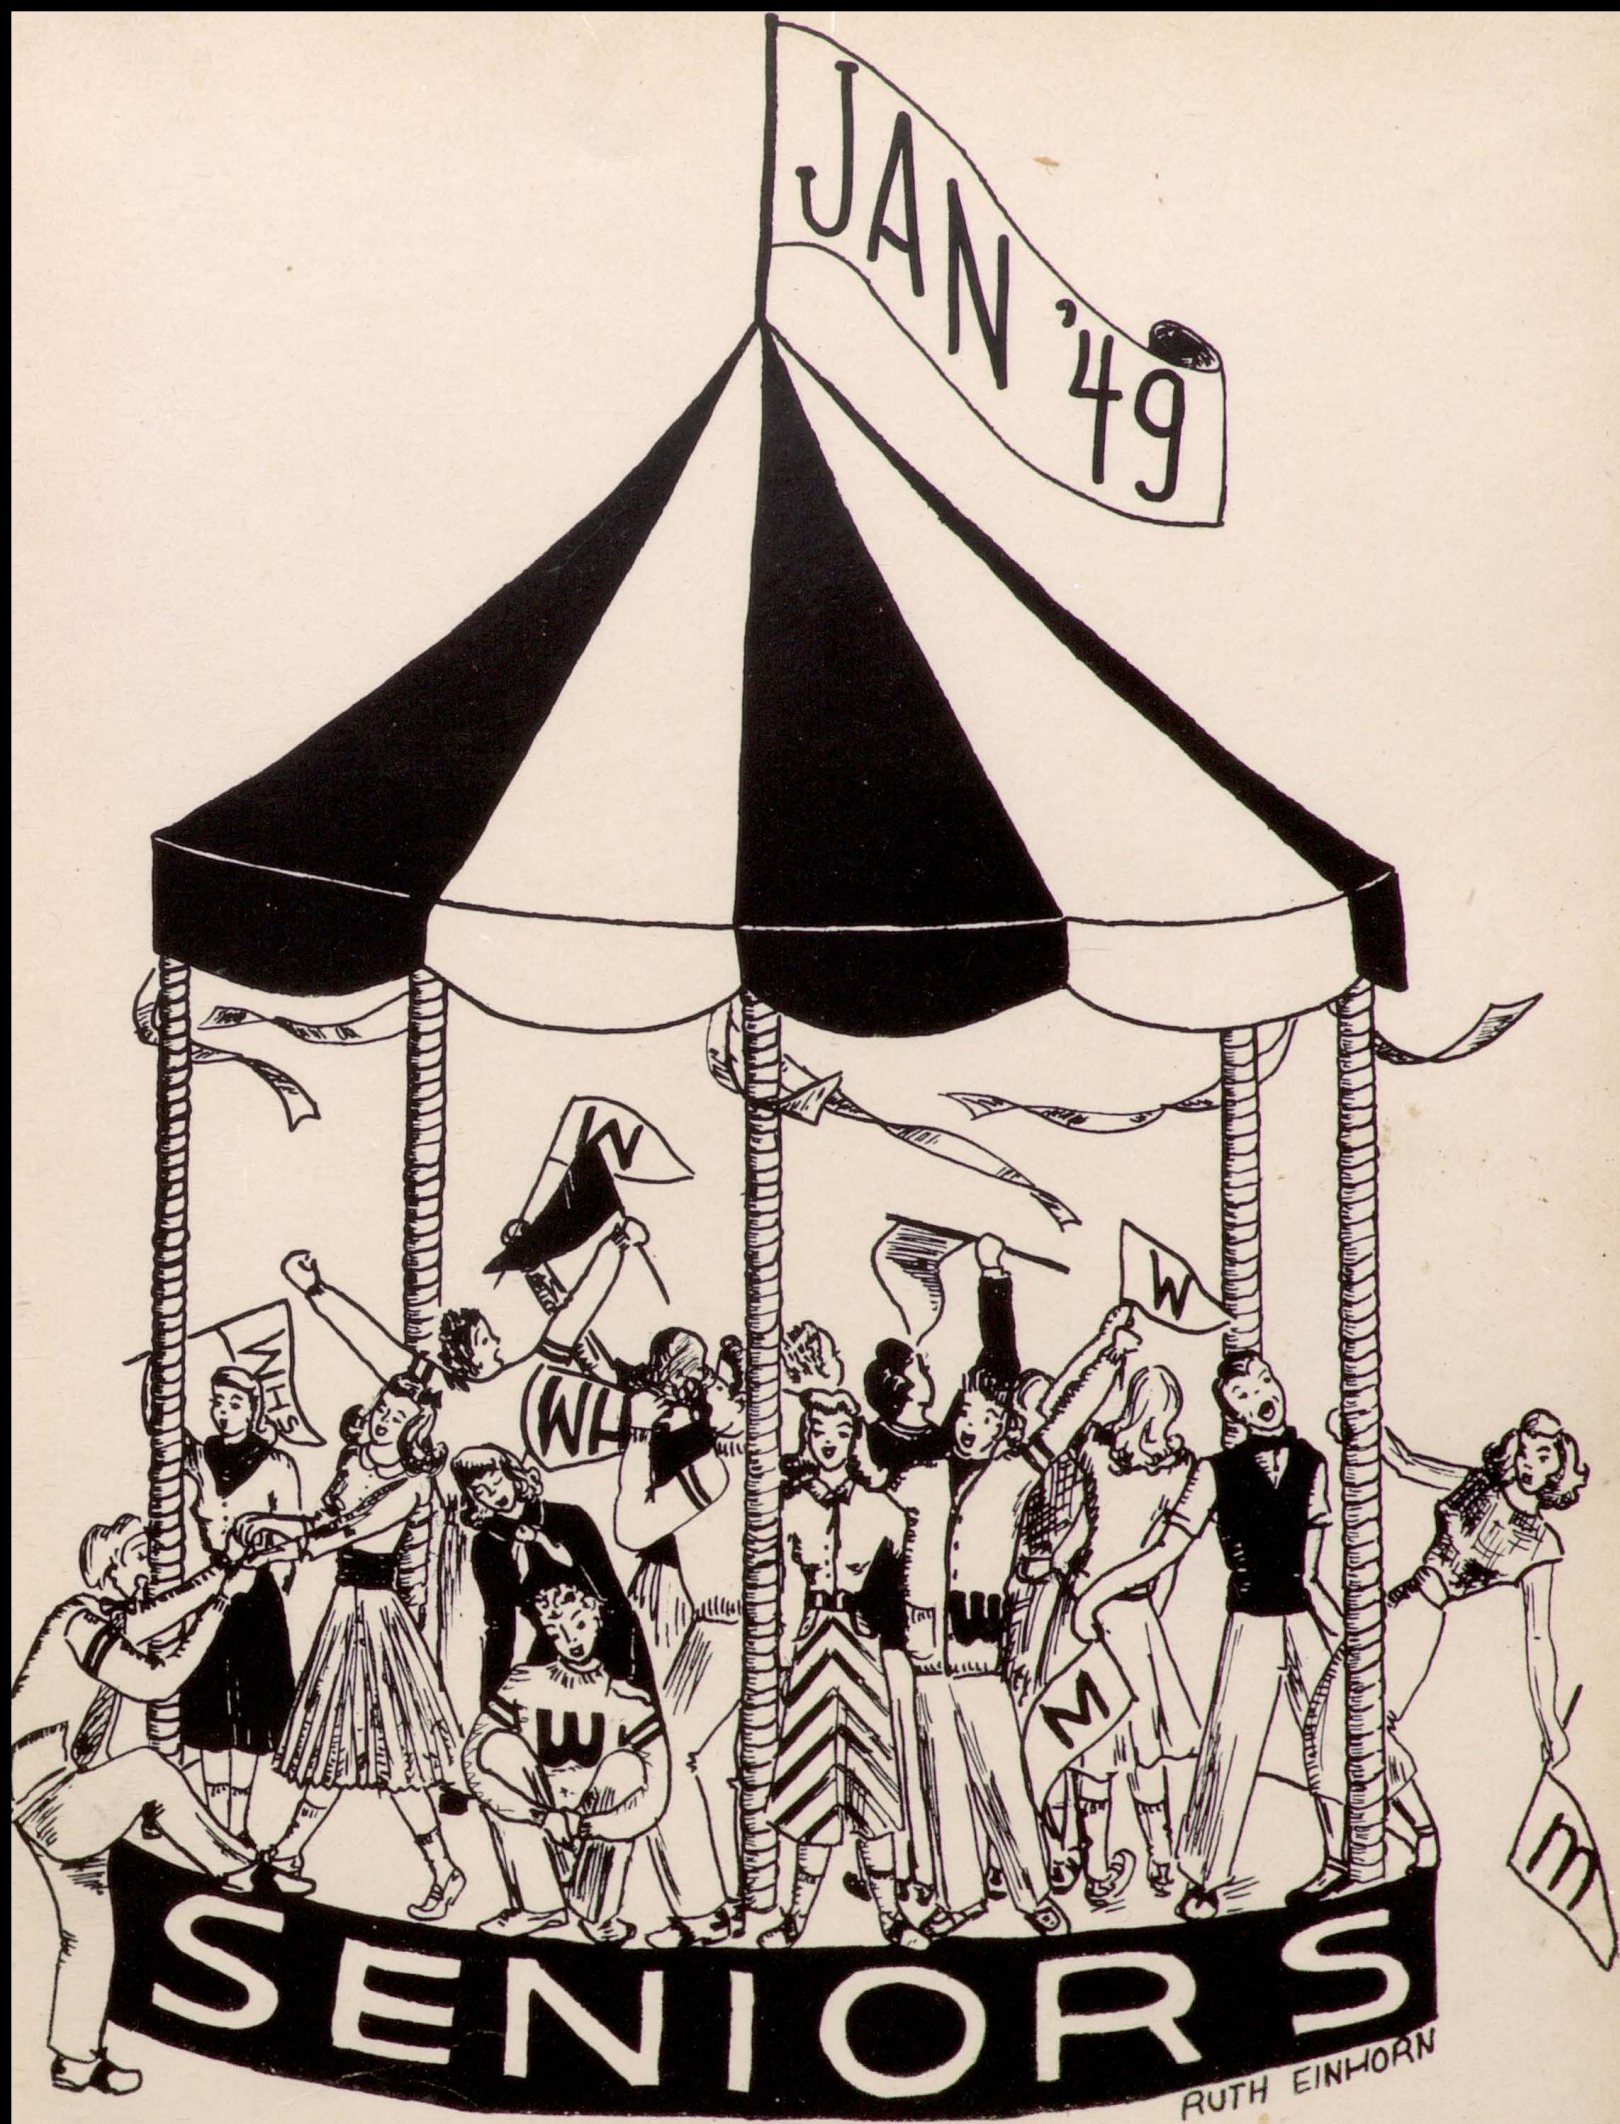

(To the tune of "The House I Live In")

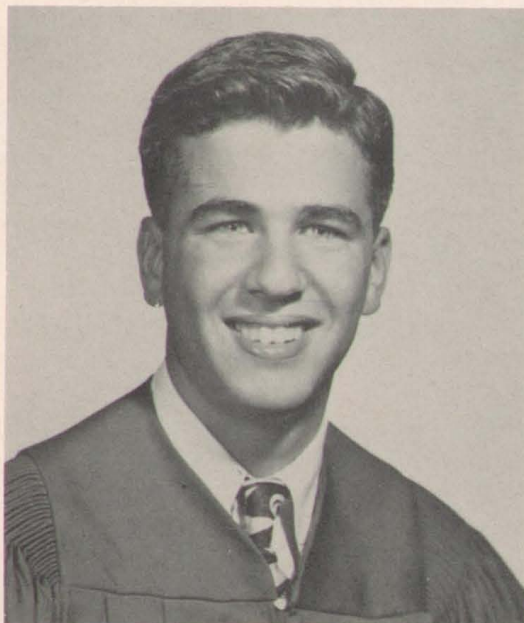

Our Alma Mater—the memories it brings,
The Sagamores, the Councils, and our graduation rings,
The football team so gallant, the cheers we knew so well;
The toll of liberation, our own beloved bell,
Our famous lunchroom, its culinary art,
The memory selections that we had to learn by heart,
Our aromatic chem lab, the Indian family tree,
Our O. B. A. elections, and our dear, sweet faculty.
Our senior year so thrilling—the big things and the small,
The Calumet, our peace pipe, and our score in basketball;
A day, that 's known as Torch day, the Hop and all its fun,
Our prom so well remembered, and a task we left well done.
And Alma Mater—although we bid farewell
These mem'ries will be with us, for in our hearts they dwell.
We never will forget you; to us you'll always be
Our one great inspiration—our lasting memory.

Last Will and Testament of the Graduating Class of January, 1949

BEING of sound mind, but tired body, and having completed four years of education at Weequahic High School, we, the Graduating Class of January, 1949, after due consideration, leave the following to our beneficiaries:

TO THE CLASS OF JUNE 1949, we leave a much battered torch, which we hope will be used to light their way to school early in the morning.

TO THE JUNIOR CLASS, we leave the thrill of seeing their first "A" assembly, with the realization that it is no different from the "B", save for the dignity and superior manners of the senior group.

TO THE SOPHOMORES, we leave all our elevator and swimming pool passes, with the hope that they have a good business season next year.

TO THE FRESHMEN, we leave all our Latin ponies, which we hope will get them out of the Annex.

TO MR. CARL HUNKINS, we bequeath all our broken test tubes, copied experiments, and lost locker keys.

TO MISS MARION WYCKOFF, we leave any extra copies of The Legend which happen to be lying around.

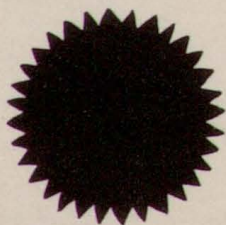

TO OUR HOMEROOM TEACHERS, we leave a year's supply of aspirin, the need of which they have often expressed to us.

TO THE JANITORIAL STAFF, we leave a new "Electrolux," with our thanks for their welcomed philosophy.

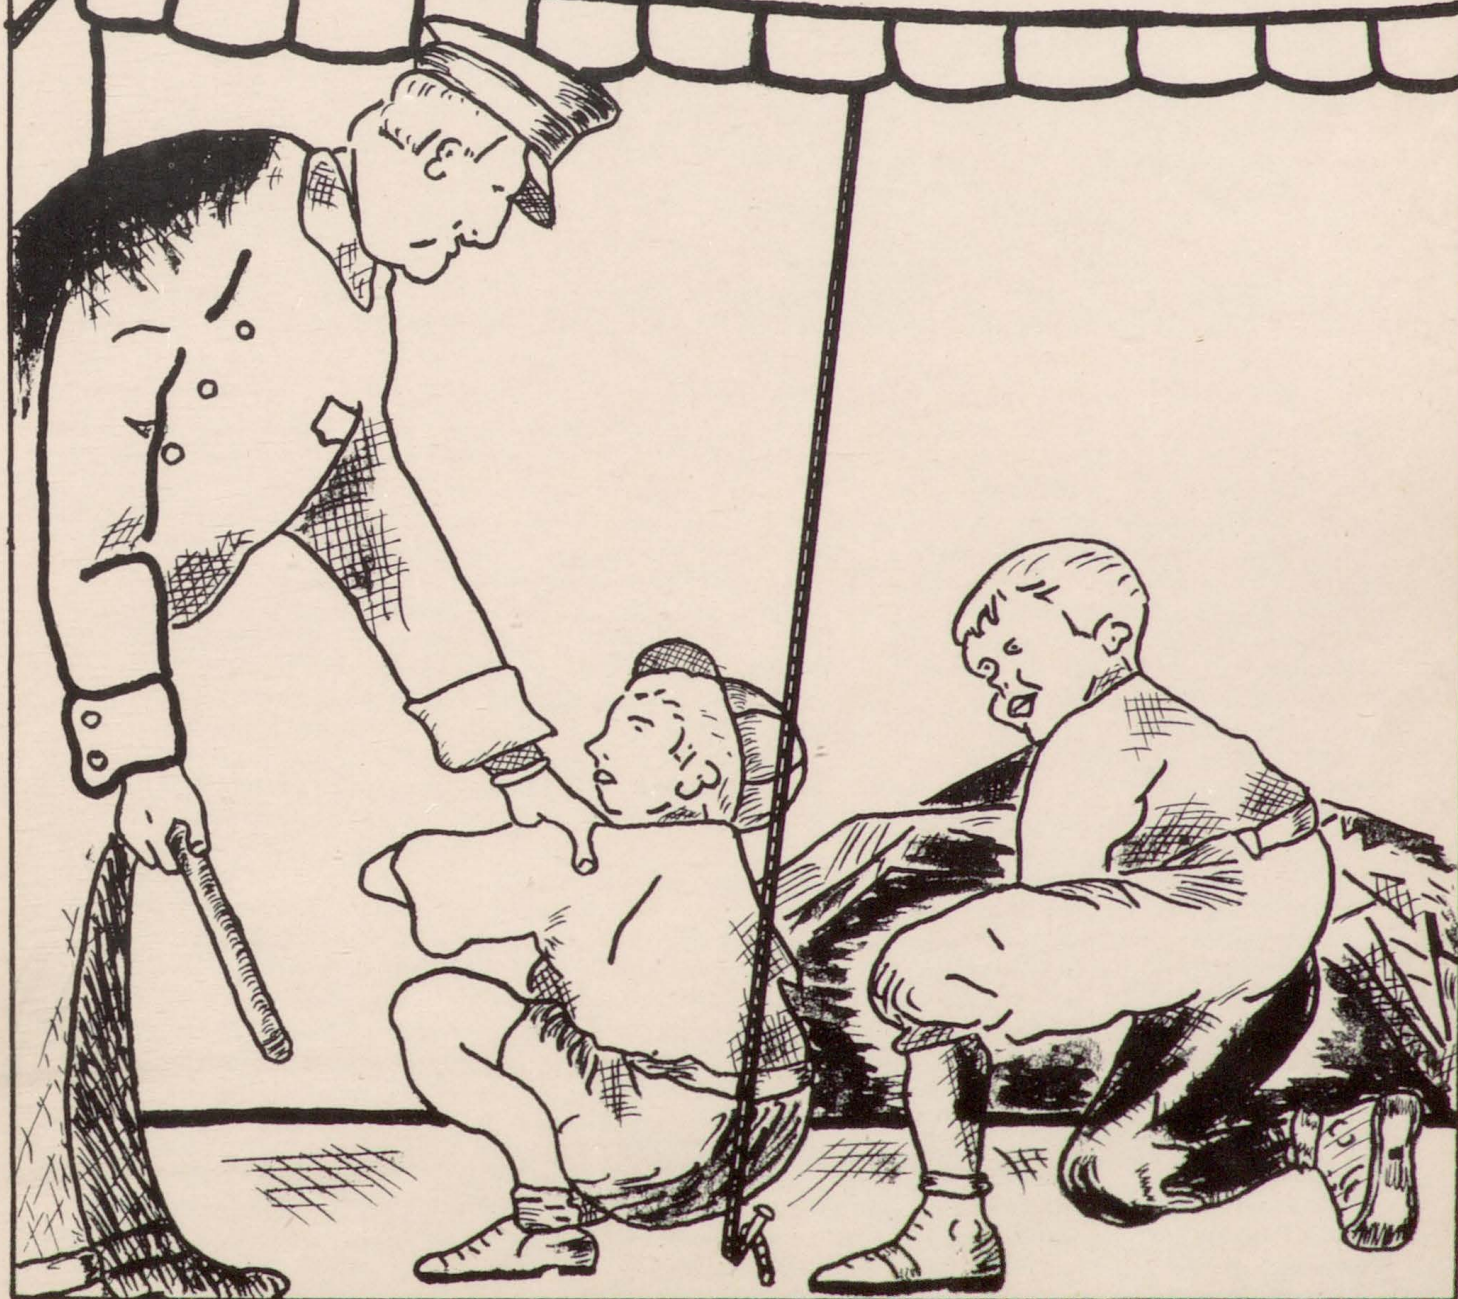

TO MR. MAX J. HERZBERG AND MISS VIRGINIA BEARD, we leave sincere appreciation for their welcomed guidance as they followed us through the many rings under the big top to the center attraction, our graduation.

SIGNED, SEALED, AND DELIVERED ON THIS
NINETEENTH DAY OF JANUARY, 1949

THE CLASS OF JANUARY 1949.

History of the Class of January 1949

AS we entered the Weequahic High School Annex in January, 1945, we gazed with awe upon the 1A's, dreaming that one day we would assume the pomp and dignity that accompanied that inspiring title. We were neither the last class to leave school at 1:50 if we had eighth period study, nor were we the last class to take vocational guidance as a minor; but we were the last class to see OBA movies after school; we did get out of school early when V-E day was announced; and we entered a 1-A class along with the atomic bomb.

We arrived at the main building in time to see many of our teachers return from one war, only to wage another with us.

We had our first taste of class elections in our junior year, never thinking that Arthur Schechner was secretly plotting to be president of the class from the junior year on; and as Juniors and Seniors, we saw many of our class rank high in the OBA elections, with Norman Schantz being elected first to the Council, and then to its presidency.

In our Senior year, music was introduced to the lunch room; and in our Senior year, many of us begged for its repeal. In our last term at Weequahic, a delegation met President Truman at the height of his campaign; OBA candidates made campaign speeches in school assemblies; and the Newark Schools' Radio Station, WBGO, was put into action.

Also in our senior year we were delighted by the gala occasion of the 4B-4A Hop. Then followed the Prom. King Neptune's attendants bedecked our gymnasium in full dress, and we were swept away amidst mermaids, treasure, and fish. Vice president, Leonard Lowengrub, ably directed the entire affair and Zelig Galoff was our master of ceremonies.

We left no marks on the school's history, save for the marks on the school itself, but we will be the first class to walk out of a newly painted building and past a new stadium on our way to Camp Dix.

It is true, our class history is one that Professor Muzzey would never include in his latest volume on America's social development, but we look back at our days in Weequahic as a significant part of our lives and we know that future years will bring us pleasant memories.

Class Sport History

WHILE the Class of January '49 was in school, every one of our squads accumulated exceptional records during at least one season. We have placed members on all-city, all-county, and even all-state teams. Our boys have done well in the state track, cross-country, and fencing tournaments. The fortune teller traveling with this circus can see naught but success for Weequahic teams of the future.

Our football squad, which for years had slumbered peacefully in the shadow of our basketball team, suddenly awoke with a bang, while most of us were in our freshman year. The team finished third in the city league, losing only to Barringer and East Side. For the past three years, the first string all-city fullback has held the same position on the Weequahic eleven. Our class has contributed many students to these teams, placing such men as Len Alpert, Jack Usdin, Stanley Daitch, Jack Birnholz, Arthur Goldsmith, Malcolm Bohrod, and Adam Husar in important positions.

Although the football squad has finally grown some hair on its chest, it was the basketball team which set an example for Weequahic teams of the future to follow. The five won the city championship twice and has been invited to the state tourney for the past four years. The team has lost only seven games in two seasons. We have placed six men on the last two ten-man squads designated as all-city by the Newark News. Representing our class on these teams were Len Kaplan, Len Karp, Len Lowengrub, Len Alpert, Sandy Klein, and Alvin Simon.

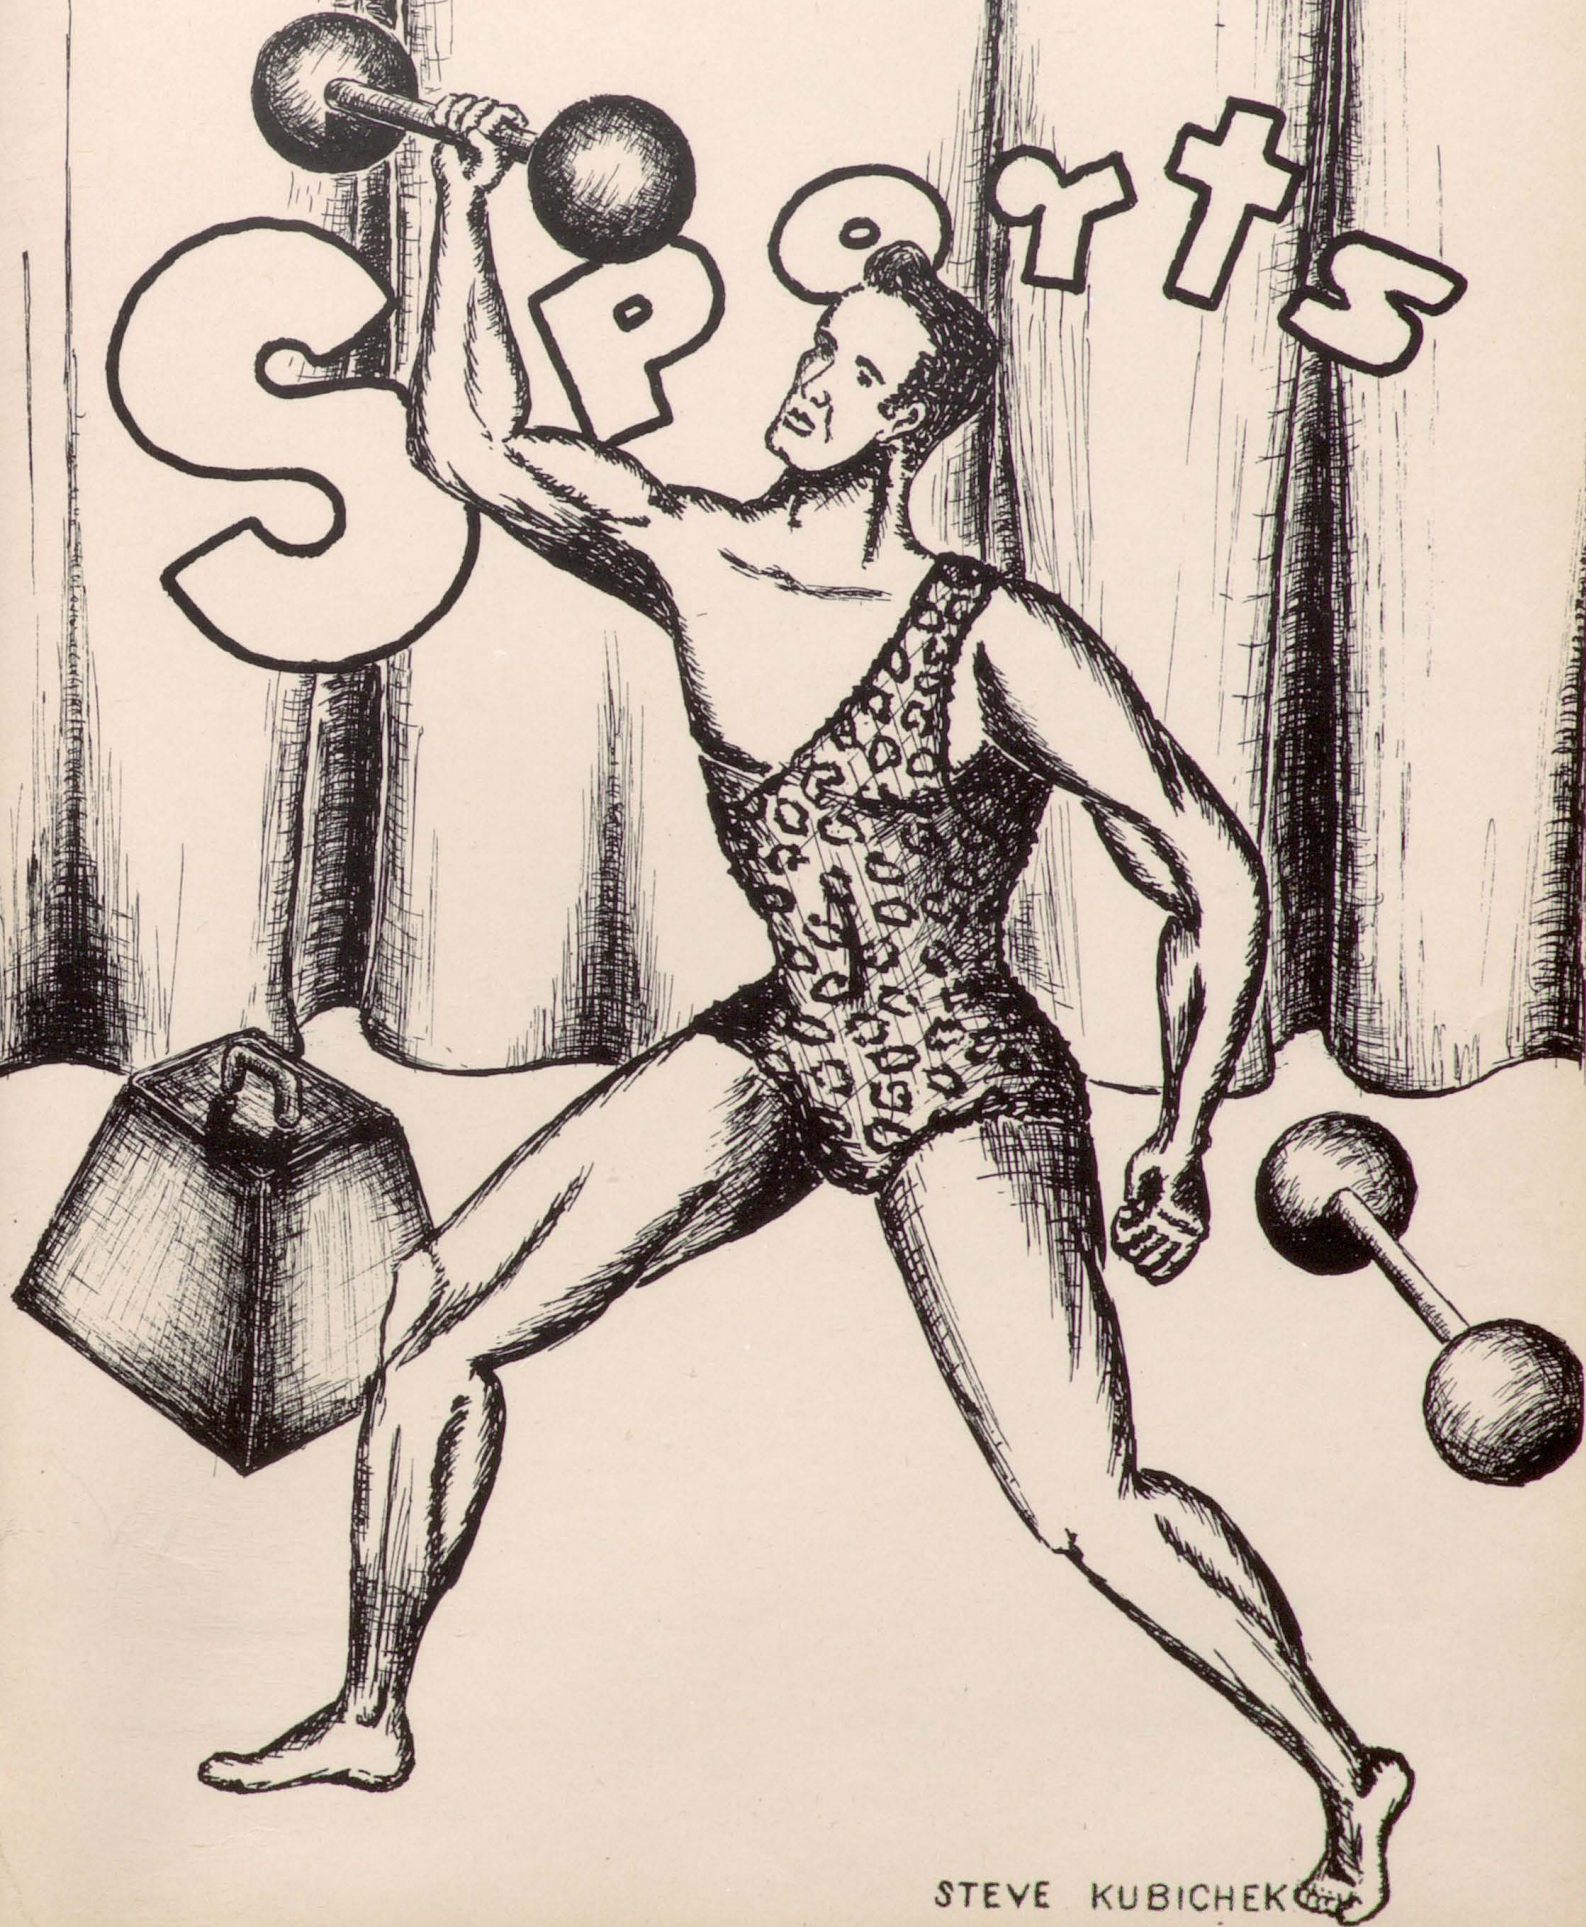

Next to basketball, track was our most successful sport. The track team has won two city championships and placed winners in the state meet. The cross-country squad, while acquiring one city championship, finished high in the state meet. Len Alpert, Alvin Simon, Stanley Daitch, Jack Usdin, Steve Kubichek, and Howard Moshinsky have won letters in these two sports.

Our baseball team was invited to the Greater Newark Tourney two years ago and also placed men on all-city squads. Forty-niners on this squad were Len Lowengrub, Bernie Busch, and Alvin Simon.

The fencing team which was started only last year, turned in an extremely fine record. Not only did it turn out one of the finest individual fencers in the state in our own Bob Taetszch, but finished third in the state meet, beaten only by Barringer and Bloomfield.

Truly, we forty-niners have discovered that there is much gold in "them thar boys". We know that they will shine when performing for the colleges of their choice.

Sports

STEVE KUBICHEK

Football

Adam Husar

In '46 and '47 Adam was the starting end opposite Len Alpert.

Leonard Alpert

Len, who has won seven letters at Weequahic, topped a brilliant athletic career by captaining the football team during his senior year.

Stanley Daitch

Stan made two letters as a regular tackle on the eleven.

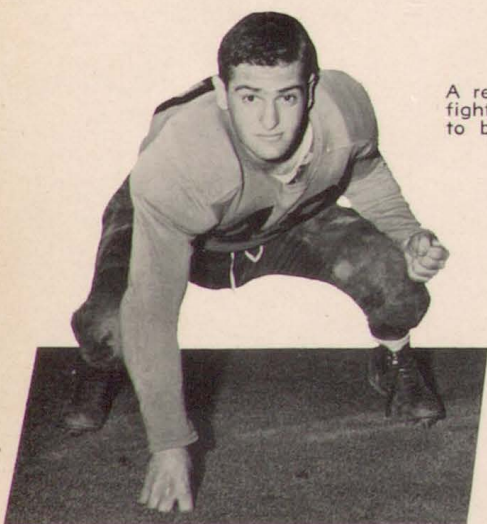

Malcolm Bohrod

A regular end this season, Mal showed fighting spirit which made him a force to be reckoned with on the gridiron.

Jack Usdin

Jack made two letters at guard and was co-captain of the football team.

Jack Birnholz

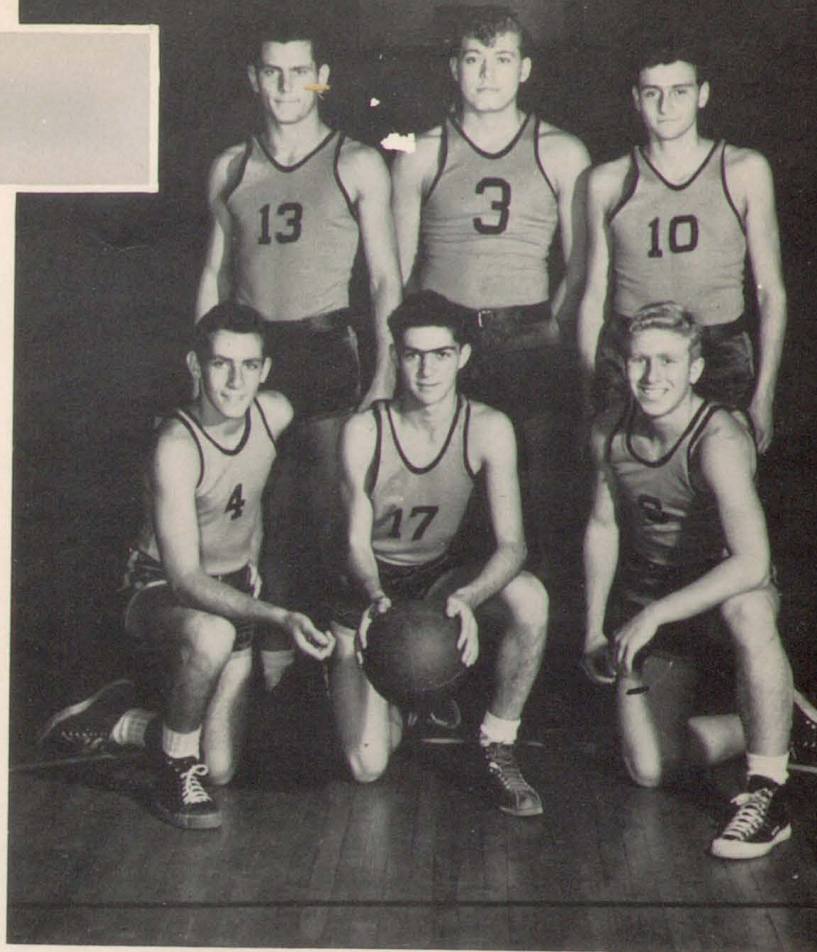

As a guard, Jack won his letter in football while a senior.

Arthur Goldsmith

A pinnacle of strength on offense and defense, Art was a first-string tackle on this year's football team.

Basketball

Leonard Alpert

Len played creditably and served the team well for his letter.

Alvin Simon

For three years, Al starred on the team as a high-scoring forward.

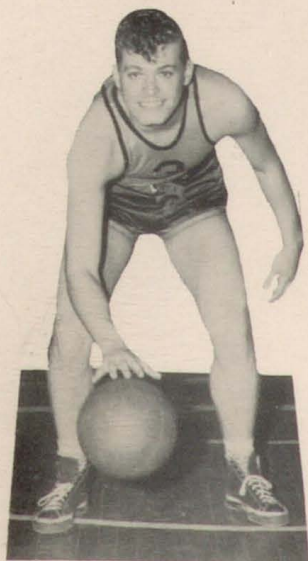

Leonard Kaplan

Len was such a fine basketball player that he was chosen for the first-string all-city team.

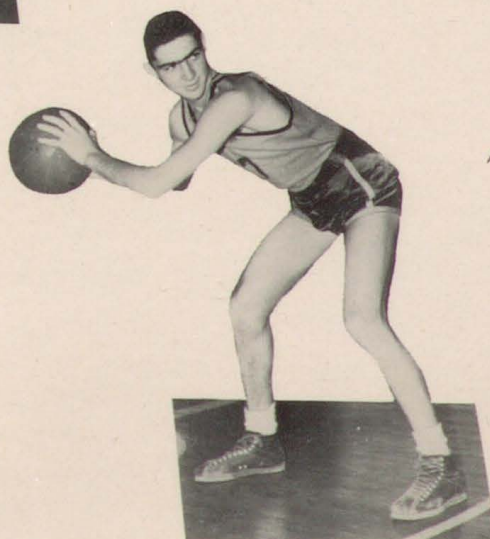

Leonard Lowengrub

A fast and fighting guard, Len was a standout on our '47-'48 city-championship team.

Sanford Klein

Sandy played fine ball off the boards and was a stalwart on last year's ball club.

Leonard Karp

Len, a deadly set eye, was a leader on last year's team.

Baseball

LETTERMEN, who will be missing from the team after graduation, are Bernie Busch, Len Lowengrub, and Al Simon. Though few in numbers these boys formed the core of last year's team. Bernie was our leading pitcher last season. When not pitching, he was often seen cavorting on the left side of the infield. Al was an all-city outfielder who hit a long ball and Len was our regular second baseman and a real speed merchant.

Track and Cross Country

OUR track squad will lose many of its capable men through graduation this year. Among these are Len Alpert, Stan Daitch, Jack Usdin, and Al Simon. Alpert was our leading man with the javelin and a fine hurdler as well. Daitch was a letter winner with the shot, and Usdin was an experienced pole-vaulter. Simon, the only track man among them, was our leading half-miler two years ago. The cross country squad, however, loses only two letter winners. They are Howie Moshinsky and Steve Kubichek. Howie was captain of this year's team and Steve has been on the squad for four years.

Girls' Sports

THE Class of January '49 is well represented by its girl gym letter winners.

There are very few girls with a thousand points. We know that those who have that many points have really worked hard for them. Many are the balls they have handled; many are the arrows they have shot in such gym groups as the volley ball and archery clubs. They have had almost perfect attendance in school. They have been prepared for gym at all times and they have earned high marks in gym. The girls who have met all these qualifications are Carole Gerber, Ruth Einhorn, Betty Jackson, Marie Morenzi, Frances Goldberg, Maxine Kemper, Wilmetann Symes, and Gloria Goldberg, and not photographed above, Helen Laing.

WE sincerely appreciate the assistance given us by the faculty in the preparation of our yearbook. To the New City Printing Company which was so helpful in arranging our book and to Mr. Hal Halpern who devoted many extra hours photographing clubs, homerooms, and school life, we, the Class of January, 1949, are deeply grateful.
